THE CALDRON ANNUAL

THE CALDRON ANNUAL

"That fellow D is truly an old salt," said Prof Jones. "It's been following the C for years."

* * *

Raj Jones says: "A s s s s swallow cannot make a summer but a frog can make s s-s-spring."

* * *

She: Oh, dear, what a lond forest!
He: What do you mean 'loud forest'?
She: Oh, dear, there are so many barks."

* * *

Biology Prof: Where do all the bugs go in the winter time?
Hitchens (absentmindedly): "Search me."

* * *

IS IT POSSIBLE!

Reading newspaper: "Sketch the famous painter, who his death to-day betrayed he couldn't draw his breath."

* * *

"There's nothing monstrous about the love of whiskey," declared Mulholland. "It's still affection."

* * *

Mr. Neill says: "I never knew a person to eat ordinary lumber, but I have known of a man to eat one shipboard."

* * *

Mr. McMillen says, "I wonder if when a canner puts a porcelain egg under a hen if he is setting a good egg sample."

* * *

Hook: "I want some winter underwear."
Clerk: "How long?"
Hook: "I want to buy them, you boob, not rent them."

* * *

"Are romantic men blonde or brunette?"
"I dunno. Sometimes they commit
